Mrs. Larry Wayne Guill

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Linda Dale Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lynwood Love, to Mr. Larry Wayne Guill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor Guill, all of Appomattox, took place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at New Hope Baptist Church.

The Rev. Joseph R. Stanley, Pastor of the Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Crystal white organza peau de sace designed with an empire bodice and Bishop sleeves. Satin ribbon outlined the Victorian Neckline and skirt of scalloped lace. From a Camelot headpiece of lace fell the full length chapel viel bordered in lace and ribbon. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, accented with stephanotis and pom - poms. Mrs. Floyd Fleshman, Jr. of Appomattox, cousin of the bride served as Matron of Honor. She wore a slipper-length dress of peppermint green fashioned with an empire bodice with tucked shirt front. Venise lace bordered the long sleeves and formed the collar. From her headpiece of silk daies and seed pearls fell a short veil of mint green silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of green and white daisies.

The bridesmaids were Miss Donna L. Guill, of Newport News sister of the Groom, and Miss Wanda Ferguson of Appomattox. Their dresses were identical to that of the Honor Attendant.

Tricia LeAnn Poe of Newport News, Va. and Terry Lynn Moore of Appomattox, both nieces of the Groom were the flower girls. They wore floor length gowns of embroidered yellow organza with short puffed sleeves, trimmed with ribbon and lace. A circle of white daises ending with an embroidered yellow organza bow formed their headpieces.

Jeffrey Taylor Forton of Appomatox, nephew of the Groom was ring bearer.

Mr. Peter J. Gregores of Lynchburg, Virginia served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Samuel E. Carter, Mr. Robert D. Williams, and Mr. John M. Giles, all of Appomattox, and Mr. Michael Duke of Louisa, Virginia, Gregor Allen Love, of Appomattox, brother of the bride, served as Junior Usher.
